RE: Jennifer Treadway Candidate and Shelby Carnahan Andrews, Treasurer;
Late fee assessment for the October 24, 2015 Election

Dear Board and Executive Secretary:

I, Jennifer Treadway, Candidate, and on behalf of Shelby Carnahan Andrews, Campaign Treasurer, hereby dispute the assessment of late fees provided in your letter dated October 30, 2015, under both procedural methods outlined in your letter. I ran for state treasurer in the primary election held on October 24, 2015. My office received a letter from the Louisiana Board of Ethics with a "Late Fee Assessment Order" for allegedly being required to file a "90 day" report (90-P) by July 24, 2015, but instead "filed the report on September 24, 2015." I was therefore fined "$100 per day (not to exceed $2,500)" for a $2,500 fine. I hereby dispute this fine, request a waiver of the fine and appeal the assessment for the reasons that follow below.

I organized my campaign committee on June 10, 2015 with the intent to run for state representative of district 66. Please see "Statement of Organization," form 200 and Form 8871, "Political Organization Notice of Section 527 Status" attached hereto as Exhibit A and B. A candidate for Louisiana House of Representatives is not considered a "candidate for major office" as that term is defined in LSA R.S. 18:1483(11), 18:1483(3)(a); but rather is a candidate for district office. LSA R.S. 18:1483(7). A person does not become a "Candidate," as that term is defined in the Campaign Finance Disclosure Act (LSA R.S. 18:1481), (hereinafter "The Act"), until the person has received and accepted contributions or made expenditures or given his consent for another person to receive a contribution or make an expenditure with a view to influencing his election for that specific office, LSA R.S. 18:1483(3)(a)(i), or has taken the action required of the State of Louisiana to qualify for election. LSA R.S. 18:1483(3)(a)(ii).

In my instance, I did not qualify for State Treasurer, a major office, until September 8, 2015. See "Qualifying Form" attached hereto as Exhibit C. Nor had I received contributions or made expenditures per LSA R.S. 18:1483(3)(a)(i) to influence my election as Treasurer.

From June 10, 2015 through July 16, 2015, the 90-P reporting period, all contributions and expenses were for the campaign committee's survey of support to determine whether to run Jennifer Treadway for House of Representatives of District 66, setting up the campaign committee organization, and opening the campaign account for House of Representatives. (See 90-P Report pp. 1, 4-7 attached hereto as Exhibit "D" with emphasis.) During the 90-P reporting period Jennifer Treadway was a candidate for a district office and as such, a 90-P report was not required of her, a candidate for district office pursuant to LSA R.S. 18:1495.4(B)(2).

I made the decision to run for treasurer on or about September 2, 2015. All funds received prior to September 3, 2015 were funds contributed for my candidacy seeking to be a State House Representative for District 66. Thereafter, on September 3, 2015, we held a fundraiser committee meeting at our office to plan the campaign kickoff. Following that, emails and mailers were sent to potential donors with a kickoff invite. All funds received thereafter were for Candidate for Treasurer. As the 30-P reflects, the first contribution for treasurer came September 3, 2015, long after the 90-P reporting period covered. Thus, no 90-P was due from Candidate Jennifer Treadway for State Treasurer, as she was not a Candidate for State Treasurer until September 3, 2015.

When the 90-P was filed, September 24, 2015, Jennifer Treadway had then been qualified for State Treasurer and had accepted contributions and made expenses as a major office candidate. Thus, on the 90-P report, filed on September 24, 2015, the "Office Sought" Section read "State Treasurer" as Jennifer Treadway at the time of filing the 90-P report was then a major candidate.

Prior to filing the 90-P however, Shelby Carnahan Andrews, Campaign Treasurer, contacted the Louisiana Board of Ethics directly and inquired as to when the 90-P report should be filed as Jennifer Treadway was not a statewide "Major Office" Candidate on the 90 day report (90-P) deadline. Id. She was advised at that time by the Ethics personnel to file the 90-P with the 30 day report (30-P) that was not due until September 24, 2015. She advised ethics staff that she could prepare the 90 day and file it that day. She was advised that it was sufficient to file it with the 30 day one. She followed the Board of Ethics advice and filed it with the 30 day report. (See Affidavit of Shelby Carnahan Andrews attached as Exhibit "E".)

It is well settled that laws governing the conduct of elections must be liberally interpreted so as to promote rather than defeat candidacy. Russel v. Goldsby, 00-2595 (La. 9/22/00), 780 So.2d 1048. Furthermore, it is well settled that statutes that are penal in nature must be strictly construed and any ambiguity must be resolved in favor of the candidate. Katie Realty, Ltd. v. Louisiana Citizenship Ins. Corp., 2012-4901067 (La. 10/16/12), 100 So.3d 324; Gibbs Const. Co., Inc. v. State Dept. of Labor, 540 So.2d 268 (La. 1989); Quality Contractors, Inc. v. State Lic. Bd. For Contractors, 206 So.2d 738 (La. App. 1st Cir. 1968).

In this case, while the Act requires a Candidate for a Major Office to file a 90-P report for the period of candidacy through July 14, 2015 (100 days prior to election), Jennifer Treadway was not a Candidate for a Major Office on July 24, 2015, the date the 90-P report was due, nor for the reporting period required of the 90-P report. Thus, in accordance with the letter and spirit of the Act, no 90-P report was due from this Candidate and thus no penalty is due.

In the alternative, the assessment should be waived because the 90 day report (90-P) due pursuant to LSA R.S. 18:1495.4(B)(2) could not have been due until at the earliest September 13, 2015, 10 days following when I became a Candidate for State Treasurer, and the Campaign Committee Treasurer, in good faith, called the Board of Ethics for an opinion as to whether and when to file the 90 day report. Mrs. Carnahan Andrews, CPA, followed the Board of Ethics' instructions to file the 90-P with the 30 day report (30-P) on September 24, 2015. Thus, any error in getting the 90-P filed prior to September 24, 2015, rather than shortly after September 3, 2015, when I became a Candidate for a Major Office, as those terms are defined by the Act, was due to following, in good faith, the Board of Ethics instructions and was not done to impede or deceive the voters of Louisiana. Thus, the spirit of the Act was not impaired.

Therefore, we respectfully request the assessment be waived or and/the assessment be appealed and the order rescinded.

Respectfully submitted,

Jennifer R. Treadway
